

HOSTING A SPIRITUAL EVENING WITH CLAIRE

Thank you for hosting a spiritual evening with Claire! The role of hostess is extremely important since it directly relates to the quality of messages that will come through. Because the atmosphere and attitude of those attending is critical to a successful reading, Claire asks that you kindly follow these guidelines:

1) All food and beverages must be in a kitchen area, NO alcohol before the session, and guests are to remain in the kitchen before the session begins. The ideal set up is to have all guests in the kitchen 15 minutes before Claire arrives. Claire will ask that all guests sign her notebook so she can pray for each of the names. Once Claire has time to settle into the living room area, she will let you know when it is alright to have the guests enter. The hostess should have a game plan pre-arranged with all guests in case anyone is running late – so the guest can quietly sneak in (i.e. the front door will be unlocked – please come in, no knocking).

2) Avoid distractions. There should be no pets or children in the room, and no other household noises (i.e. TV or music playing in another room). Everyone should turn off or silence their cell phones. Make sure all guests use the bathroom before (to avoid people getting up during the session). The hostess should remain seated the entire session. Cameras or recordings are not allowed, however guests can write notes.

3) Educate your guests. It is an honor and a gift for us to receive any type of message. Some people who have passed away are only able to communicate in symbols. Others are able to speak through emotions, and others can speak in full sentences. Appreciation, laughter, and tears seem to be the elements that encourage the messages to come through. Please do not have guests who are negative, scared, or there to “prove it is not true”. Guests like that will only distract from the process and deprive everyone who has come for a connection. Besides being a Medium, Claire has an extremely demanding career in the nonprofit world, and a busy family life with 3 growing boys. She needs the quiet time before the session begins to meditate and pray for all of the guests.

4) Payment. Each party needs to have a minimum of 10 guests. For house parties that are local (less than 30 minutes of travel time for Claire), each guest pays $20 (cash preferred). For parties that will require over 30 minutes of travel time for Claire, the charge is $30 per person. The hostess should collect the payments BEFORE Claire arrives and put in an envelope (Claire will have envelopes available if you need one). At the end of the session discreetly hand the envelope with the money to Claire.
